The Sicilian Tenors Christmas Amore

The love of Christmas, Italian-style!

Her famous nativities in the hundreds all over the island, dazzling Christmas lights, joyous cacophony of church bells on Christmas Eve, the night of the Luminari, buccellato and zabaglione, and La Befana's sweets for the children --- all this heralds the holy season in Sicily.

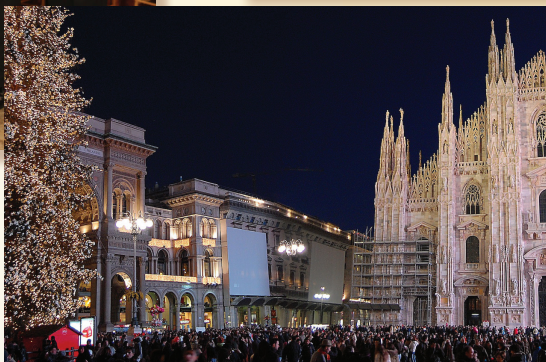

Enter The Sicilian Tenors!

Christmas Amore unites three marvelous Tenor voices with the world's best loved music to ring in the season and put joy in your heart.

Taking their audience on a romantic journey from Hollywood to Broadway to Italy using multimedia backgrounds, storytelling and song, The Sicilian Tenors provide an evening of non-stop entertainment to lift the spirits, gladden the soul, and celebrate the Christmas miracle.

Wrapped in sparking paper and tied with festive bows, the timeless Christmas melodies of Adeste Fideles and O Holy Night combine with powerful Italian classics like O Sole Mio to create a truly unique holiday concert.

Christmas Amore... Don't Miss It!

"The format was fresh, and The Tenors were in fine tune, delivering on such favorites as Silent Night, O Solo Mio and one of Lanza's biggest hits, Be My Love. Glorious, glorious, glorious, The Sicilian Tenors hit all the right notes. Moving the audience from tears to laughter with warm nostalgia and warm voices. The value of beauty, especially in music, can't be overstated for the picking up of your spirits and making you smile."
